

Josh or Scot

Australian Treasurer Josh Frydenberg would make good Office, State Department, for Australian Prime Minister, Scott Morrison, Former Treasurer Current Australian Prime Minister, because although Josh might not be as good Economically as Scott, Josh has Confident Aussie Character. God did not necessarily Appoint Mr Morrison as an Australian Prime Minister per se because Scott's Context is Prosperity Doctrine and Caste Society for which Current Governments Gaslight his Intellect and Character as Appointed Context is of or for any worthy of Office of Romans. Intercepting Foreign Signals means Spiritual Peace beyond the Early Modern Enlightenment Cryptology of the Metaphysical World yet nowadays women use Men as Cannon Fodder because women want to intercept yet they have not the Perception or Testosterone to Correct Decision or Fight!
